

Art History Graduate Students Association of York University

Constitution & Guidelines

Fall 2015

The Purpose of this Constitution is:

1. To provide a general philosophy and rationale for the Graduate Student Association.
2. To provide a general orientation for the membership.
3. To lend stability and continuity to the Graduate Student Association.
4. To provide an understanding of the operations, practices and procedures carried on within the various parts of the Graduate Student Association.

ARTICLE 1: Name and Compliance

I.I Name: This organization shall be known as the Art History Graduate Students Association of York University, the name under which it is officially registered with York University Graduate Students Association (YUGSA). It will hereinafter be referred to as AHGSAY or generally as the Graduate Student Association.

I.II Compliance: AHGSAY operates at York University, subject to York University and York University Graduate Students Association (YUGSA) policies and procedures.

Article 2: Preamble

The Graduate Student Association—hereafter referred to as the GSA—represents and advocates for the collective interests of Art History graduate students in all matters of departmental policy and action at York University. The GSA seeks to build community among the graduate students, faculty, and larger university, with consideration for diverse experiences and interests. Above all, the GSA works to optimize the environment within which graduate students develop, both professionally and personally.

Article 3: Membership

The members of the GSA are Art History graduate students. Current enrollment in the graduate program is sufficient for membership. No mandatory general membership dues will be collected from members, although it is suggested that members contribute a nominal amount of $5 in the Fall of each membership year to put towards special events, including the annual Art History symposium held by the department.

Article 4: Meetings

GSA meetings will be moderated by the President/co-Presidents and held a minimum of two times per semester during the academic year. All members are invited and encouraged to attend.

Normally, any voting will take place in the meeting, and members who are not in attendance at the meeting forfeit their right to vote, unless a proxy vote has been arranged in advance. The GSA does reserve the right to decide, by a majority vote or the decision of the President/ co-Presidents, to put any vote to the entire GSA. In these cases, the issue will be presented via written or electronic memo to all members, and members will be given a pre-specified period of time in which to cast their ballots. Before any official action is taken by the GSA, a majority vote must be obtained for those votes taken outside of meetings (as per the stipulations outlined above). In all cases, the votes of all members will be weighed equally.

Article 5: Elections and Eligibility

Elections for GSA offices will be held by the first week of October of each year. Only GSA members may hold official positions. No individual may hold, or run for, more than one GSA office at the same time. If more than one person volunteers or is nominated for an elected position, or two in the case of jointly-held positions, a democratic election process will be put in motion. The specific process of nominations and voting for elected office will be determined by the membership of each year's GSA. For each position, the person receiving the largest number of votes will be elected.

Article 6: Elected Positions

The GSA has 6 elected officers: President, Secretary, Treasurer, Communications Chair, Symposium Chair, and Fundraising Chair. The office of President may be held by one individual or by two co-presidents of equal authority who run for the office jointly. The position of Symposium Chair may also be held by two individuals.

Section 5.1: Requirements of Officers

The Officers of GSA must attend at least 75% of regularly scheduled meetings.

- President:
Requirements: The president is responsible for organizing and overseeing meetings and elections, communicating with other officers, calling special meetings, and coordinating officers in special tasks.
- Secretary:
Requirements: The secretary is responsible for recording the minutes of the meetings and distributing them to the membership, keeping all records and lists updated, and moderating the departmental listserv.
- Treasurer:
Requirements: The treasurer is responsible for drafting the GSA's budget and presenting it to the executive, membership and YUGSA, keeping the membership informed of the GSA's current budget, reporting the amount of expenditures by the GSA at each meeting.
- Communications Chair:
Requirements: The communications chair is responsible for leading social media communications and all advertising and promotions for special events held by the GSA.
- Symposium Chair:
Requirements: The symposium chair is responsible for leading major tasks in the planning of the annual symposium held by the GSA, including but not limited to: the writing of the initial call for papers, paper and participant selection, logistical considerations of mounting the final event. Note: while "symposium" is written here, the final event may take any number of different forms. This position may be augmented to suit the desires of the membership of each year's GSA, but will be generally considered as a special event chair.

- Fundraising Chair:

Requirements: The fundraising chair is responsible for leading the coordination of all fundraising initiatives.

Article 7: Replacing Officers and Representatives

If a member serving in an elected position other than the President resigns or is otherwise unable to fill his or her position, the GSA executive will appoint a replacement to fill the remainder of the term. If the President resigns or is otherwise unable to fill her or his term, an election will be held following all the guidelines and stipulations for a regular election. Replacement members for any position, including those elected, will serve only until the end of the original term of that position.

Article 8: Finances

The GSA's money will be primarily acquired through funds allocated to the GSA by YUGSA, the department, and fundraising initiatives. Any expenditures of the GSA must be in accordance to the GSA's annual budget, approved by the membership. Only if the GSA exceeds its budget or needs funds for a special event may further dues be collected. This must be approved by a majority (50% +1) of the membership. All monies belonging to the GSA shall be deposited and disbursed through a bank account established for the GSA. All funds must be deposited within one week of collection.

Article 9: Ad Hoc Committees

Ad hoc committees may be created at any time by the decision of the President or a majority vote at a GSA meeting. Appointments to the ad hoc committee will be the responsibility of the executive committee. Each ad hoc committee must select a contact person so that GSA members and others can communicate efficiently with that committee. All ad hoc committees are responsible for maintaining records of their activities and for reporting pertinent information to members at the GSA meetings.

Article 10: Amendments and Revisions

An amendment can be added to this constitution with a 2/3 vote of all members present at the meeting when the issue arises. The amended constitution must be presented to the YUGSA office in the beginning of every academic year.

Approved by a majority (50% + 1) of the membership of AHGSAY for 2015-2016 on October 27, 2015.
